

Oh, Land of Joy

GOD's words are coming through loud and clearer each day as they are received and spread around the globe by mighty men and women of God to impart his message. Jewish prophets Daniel and Butzion Stern are among those taking the message to many places and sharing prophecies from Zion or Jerusalem, about salvation for the lost and a life set apart for God in the Body of Christ.

The Sterns, who are well-known locally following their participation at the two World Festival of Praises, share here the prophetic revelations on Fiji from the Lord which they compiled for their book on Fiji the 'Land of Joy' to encourage and to point out the way ahead.

The Lord touches on unity in the Body of Christ, [television - the 'box of demons'], reading the Bible or His Book of Instruction and making time for Him.

This is Part 1 of the prophecy:

'My children, for but one season you put aside your differences. My children, I have held you up before the world to show how unity could come by looking at Me alone.

Oh, Land of Joy, you were shining for all to see. Look at the place you are now standing. Can the world look toward you for inspiration on the ways to walk together - I say no, turn towards Me in a new fresh way and receive My anointing.

Much has come upon you in the last days, but for the few I have not poured out My cup of pain upon you. Stop and look at the things to come in the near days. See how you shall bless many.

Receive My cleansing rain with thanks giving.

Receive the blessings I have in store for you.

Give freely as you receive freely.

Oh, Land of Joy, you have blessed Me in the days past yet within your house lays the dragon of the evil one waiting to devour you. Slithering on its belly it comes unawares to kill and destroy you and your household. Showing you that he is your friend, but will kill you at any moment. Watch! For he is strong and will stop at nothing but My Blood.

At your door the wolf howls out his mournful howl. Treading to and fro looking for the crack in your armor. His lips are curled up exposing his vengeful teeth, sharp ever ready to nip at your heels. Let not the wolf have the chance to bite you. For his bite is the bite of death.

Lift up your hands towards Me and I shall lift you over the dangers that surround you. Have I not given you the leaders that have brought you to my feet? Have I not set in place the warriors that fight the battle day and night for your souls? Have I not given peace to the ones that lift My name on high, and burdened the ones that cast My name down? Have I not brought you out of the pit of hell, and set you up for the world to see.

Today you are making ready for My glory to shine forth from your hearts. Break the walls that stand between you. Open your hearts to one another for My love to spill forth as a river. Give one to another the things that you are in need of. Let no man say that you are walking outside of My will.

Shine forth as I have given you the ability to. Come together and find the understanding that is given freely to you. Read My Book of Instruction, for it is good and well and good for you to do so. Do not turn your back on Me for the things of the world, look at Me as your supplier of all things. Find the place to come into My house daily. Teach your children as I have taught you.

Oh, you of the Land of Joy, be glad in the place you have found in Me. Come out of the things of the world. Look not upon the box of demons[Television], for from this one box comes the words of hate towards Me.

Remove the things from your house that cause a rift between you and Me. Find yourself on the floor before Me each day. Let not your heart be hardened with each other. Rest in Me and you will find that I am watching over you at every moment.

Part 2 of the Prophecy:

While walking in the land of sin(United States of America) in a pool of hope (a place of rest for God's people) one day I was taken up to the Heavens. Standing looking down to the Land of Joy I could see that the land had gone through a terrible shaking. With me stood an Angel of God. I asked, what kind of a shaking would cause such a change as the one that has happened?

At first there was no answer to my question. So I looked again and could see that the Land of Joy had been cleansed from the leaders of darkness. Just then the Angel of God said to me: "Man, come let us sit and see how this land has come to the point that it is in this day. Look at the land and see the abundant beauty that God has endowed upon them. See how the evil one came into the people of this land many years ago. Look, tell Me what you see".

I looked and could see that the land was void of all kinds of buildings. I became aware that I was seeing this land from the first days of its life. Formed from the hand of God to give life and beauty to the earth, this land was one of the jewels of the waters.

Soon I saw a man come to this land and found a life of peace for himself and his family. They prospered and grew into a small nation of peace-loving children of God. Although God had not made himself known to them they knew from within that God was their Provider.

After some time came a boat carved from a tree to this land and cut into the tranquility the way of life. The boat filled with the servants of the evil one came to sow the seeds of discontent among the peoples of the island. They came to rob and kill. It was at this time the people of the small island learned the ways of the evil one. They learned to rob, kill, rape all of the debaucheries known to the evil one. As I watched I was unaware of my companion that stood with me. I was totally caught up in what God has opened my eyes to see.

As I watched the relentless march of time go by; I saw the once peaceful people turn into servants of the highest degree for the evil one. I could see the eating of flesh as a ritual to the evil one. I saw the children once giving thanks to God, now rushing headlong into the pit of the evil one.

Not wanting to look towards the Heavens as they once did. Now the land was covered with grass huts with the men sitting around fires and drinking the root (Yaqona or kava) that causes the brain to vegetate into nothingness. Both young and old have fallen into the pit by the drink of Satan. As time went forward they stepped backwards into the traditions of the lies that had no pure foundation.

I could see that they were doing all sorts of evil things, calling it good. Taking the things that God has given them for good, turning around to do evil in the sight of God. The (witch)doctors were now showing the powers that only the evil one would do as if it were the ways of their forefathers. The lies were taught to their children and in time the lie took root until this very day, understood as truth by the world today and gone unquestioned by the children of God today.

I watched as the small island grew into a larger land mass by the hand of God. I wondered why God would allow this land to grow by exploding the mountains into great torches of fire. With the lava flowing into the sea thus giving more land over to the people of this land. The Angel of God said to me: Man you have seen much and you question little. Yet your questions are worthy to be answered. Look and see the things that are to come to this land and your questions shall be answered for you."

I could see that many people with torches were going to the black holes, all of the time and throwing the torches into the holes. As the torch would fall into the opening it would be grabbed by something inside and snuffed out. But sometimes the fire would begin to burn from within the pit thus turning it into part of the rest of the land. When this happened the other shafts would shake and something that looked as if it were blood would come to the surface and spill over the sides causing the people to cry with rage against the deep cavity of the deep.

With tears that cleansed the soul many people young and old alike went time and time again to throw the fire of God into the pit of lies that spewed forth from the caverns of deception. After some time the leaders of the deep came forth to cause war with the people of God from this land. It is at this time that the power of God came down upon them and fought the battle for them. For this battle was not on the land nor was it for the land, but in the spirit and for the spirits of the people. No men can fight this war without the hand of God, the Great I AM, Himself upon them.

The battle raged on for some time; the children of God had many cuts and bruises. Their knees were callused from the time that was spent on them. Many were under nourished because of the fasting that was being done during this battle royal. But none of the children of God fell from the task at hand.

The battle exploded into the final battle in this place as the evil one himself came to take charge over it. It was at this time the mountains erupted with the vengeance of the evil one poured out over the land causing many to die and to kill many of his own servants. The evil one turned and set his feet upon the land and laid claim to it in the name of all that is dark and evil.

It was at this point that the Army of God came and began to battle against the evil one. The war went on for many days and many of the people of the land were taken into the house of God. And many more of the servants of Satan were cast into the pit of no return. In the end of the battle over this land the evil one turned and ran back into the cavity whence he came.

I then felt as if I had seen a full circle; once again I saw an island full of peace and joy. I could no longer see any black spots on the land. I saw only a land full of the lush green treasures of God. I saw a people that were indeed full of joy.

I turned and looked at the Angel of God but He was gone and I stood alone looking down as before. I turned aside and sat down on a bench. My head was spinning as I tried to understand how this could have happened to me. I was walking down a street in the Land of Sin(United States of America), being in one of the pools of hope in this land. I was taken up by God to see the Land of Joy in her last battle and then returned to this very place.

This all happened in one step on earth. Let all Glory be given to God our Father and his Son Jesus Christ, for it is He that will save us in a single step of our life. It is He that will catch us up into His House in a twinkling of an eye. Let us all be ready for we know not the time nor the hour but indeed the season is at hand.
